- A. GENERAL NOTICE: In certain counties located near an international border, Texas law may prohibit the sale of property lacking required water and sewer services. Even if a sale of such property is permitted, a buyer may face additional costs or restrictions under Texas law due to a lack of basic infrastructure (water, sewer, roads, and drainage).
- B. RESOURCES: See Subchapter B, Chapter 232 of the Texas Local Government Code for more information. General information is available at:
<https://www.texasattorneygeneral.gov/cpd/colonias-prevention>. Additionally, the local city or county permitting authority may be able to provide more information on a specific property.
- C. CONSULT AN ATTORNEY: Brokers and agents cannot guarantee that a sale of the property is permitted under Texas law or otherwise give legal advice. Consult an attorney regarding the implications of state and local law before executing a contract for the sale of a property near an international border.

The undersigned acknowledge receipt of this notice.
